The IU Health Way

Vision ▪ Values ▪ Promise

Our vision, values and promise

IU Health has been on a path to create a healthy culture for all. The IU Health Way describes our shared culture and how we aspire to treat each other, our patients and the communities we serve.

About the hospital

Indiana University Health Tipton Hospital is an acute care hospital located in Tipton, Indiana, that has provided patient-centered care to residents of Tipton County for more than 70 years. It offers personalized care and a range of medical specialties and services. IU Health Tipton Hospital is a Pathway to Excellence designated facility.

The hospital is part of IU Health, the largest and most comprehensive health system in Indiana. IU Health, in partnership with Indiana University School of Medicine, one of the nation's leading medical schools, gives patients access to leading-edge medicine and treatment options that are available first, and often only, at IU Health.

Purpose of a hospital's implementation strategy

IU Health Tipton Hospital presents this implementation strategy which follows the development of its 2024 community health needs assessment (CHNA). Every three years, a CHNA is conducted to understand the community served by the hospital, including its greatest health issues, health disparities and the root causes of poor health. This information is then used to inform strategies designed to improve the community's health.

The implementation strategy process is meant to align IU Health and its hospitals' programs, services and resources with goals, objectives and strategic initiatives that address significant community health needs described in the CHNA.

IU Health's process follows the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Tax Code 501(r) requirements to conduct a CHNA every three years and adopt an implementation strategy that addresses significant community health needs as set forth by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA).

Development of implementation strategy

This Implementation Strategy was developed by a team from IU Health Tipton Hospital that included the local community outreach team, social work, clinical teams, local organizations and hospital leaders.

Each year, senior leadership at IU Health Tipton Hospital will review this implementation strategy to determine if changes should be made to better address the health needs of the community.

Visit the IU Health website for more information on the CHNA process, a summary of the significant community health needs, highlights of the many data sources that support the health needs and for a copy of the 2024 IU Health Tipton Hospital CHNA.

Community health needs identified

The 2025 – 2027 implementation strategy was developed by IU Health Tipton Hospital in response to the prioritized community health needs in the 2024 CHNA. The CHNA process was informed by multiple data sources gathered in January through June of 2024. Demographic, health condition, health behavior and social determinants of health data; findings from other community health assessments of the hospital's local community; and input from individuals and organizations who participated in the community input process were analyzed and reviewed to assess the health of the community. Health disparities were highlighted across the different data sources too.

Many health needs were identified in the 2024 CHNA with much input from individuals and organizations in the local community, including ways to address these needs. The Hanlon Method was used to prioritize health needs in the community. This evidence-based technique takes the community health needs and rates them against specific criteria and other factors, identifying issues with the highest scores.

The final list of significant community health needs in the 2024 CHNA are listed below, in alphabetical order. It is not surprising that many, if not all of them, are the same from the 2021 CHNA. These health needs and social determinants of health (i.e., conditions in the environment where people are born, live, learn, work, play, worship and age that impact health) are complex and often connected to one another. Sustained community collaborations and resources as well as comprehensive interventions (i.e., program-to-policy approaches) over longer periods of time will be vital to see changes in health outcomes and health disparities in the local community served by the hospital.
