

Volunteering at IU Health Arnett Hospital

Before you begin the application process for Volunteer Services, please answer the following questions to help you determine if IU Health Arnett Hospital is the best place for you to serve. As you make a commitment to give your time and service freely, please also discuss your decision with your family and other important people in your life. Keep in mind that it is important for you to make this commitment at the right place and at the right time.

Indicates required field*

*The volunteer application process includes several trips to the IU Health Arnett Hospital campus before you can get a badge, begin volunteering, and receive benefits. Typically an applicant makes four trips to the hospital for interviewing, health assessment, and turning in required documents. Are you willing to make the trips required to complete the volunteer application process?

Yes

No

*IU Health Arnett volunteers must commit to a minimum of 45 hours of service. Three hours of service per week is required unless instructed otherwise by your assigned department. Are you willing to dedicate at least 45 hours to volunteering with a structured schedule over the next few months?

Yes

No

*IU Health Arnett volunteers are selected based on skills, experience, and character. Are you a team player with good communication and time management?

Yes

No

*Online mandatories, health screen, flu shot, and TB tests are required in order to complete the volunteer registration process. The online mandatories must be renewed each year that you volunteer at IU Health Arnett. Are you willing to provide the necessary information, complete the online mandatories, and receive a full health assessment?

Yes

No

If you answered yes to all of these questions, we encourage you to continue with your application. Please read the application packet thoroughly before turning it into Volunteer Services so you are familiar with our policies. Thank you in advance for your interest in our volunteer program.