2021 Heritage Observances

Indiana University Health places an emphasis on fostering an environment in which differences are respected and valued. It is through understanding, including and embracing our diversity that IU Health improves the health of our patients and community. Overall, the mission is to drive a culture of acceptance, mutual trust, respect and inclusion in order to better support patients and our 36,000 team members across Indiana. Here is our 2021 calendar of heritage observances.
